Front Cover:

The Cavalier King Charles Spaniel is a small breed classed as a toy dog. It is one of the most popular breeds in the United Kingdom and since 2000, has gained popularity in the United States. The breed is highly affectionate, playful, extremely patient and eager to please. They will adapt quickly to almost any environment, family, and location. Their ability to bond with larger and smaller dogs makes them ideal in households with more than one breed of dog. The breed is suitable with people of all ages, from children to seniors, making them a very versatile dog. Cavaliers rank of average intelligence in working or obedience.
